Are you passionate about making a difference and love talking on the phone? Do you want to improve your communication skills while contributing to a worthy cause? We have the perfect opportunity for you! Become a Volunteer with Our Supporter Relations Group

As we grow, we need enthusiastic individuals to help us reach out to our donors and supporters. Your role will be crucial in keeping our community informed and engaged with everything happening at EFH.

- Friendly Conversationalists: If you love talking on the phone, this is the role for you!
- Flexible Commitment: Whether you have just 15 minutes a day or 2-4 hours a week, your time is invaluable.
- Communicators: Help us connect with our donors, keeping them updated and appreciated.

What You'll Gain:

- Enhanced Communication Skills: Perfect for personal growth or career development.
- Sense of Fulfillment: Make a tangible impact by supporting families and contributing to EFH's mission.
- Valuable Feedback Role: Your insights will help us improve our communication and donor appreciation efforts.

Your willingness to connect with our donors and supporters is vital for our growth and mission success. Join our Supporter Relations group and help us help more families!
